Corps names Aliff as executive secretary to district commander

HUNTINGTON, WV... Jennifer Aliff has been selected as the Executive Secretary to Col. Dana R. Hurst, Commander of the Huntington District, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE). She replaces Frances Crew who retired.

As executive secretary, Aliff is responsible for providing secretarial support and overall office management for the district's Executive Office and staff.

A native of Huntington, W.Va., Aliff is a 1986 graduate of Huntington High School. In 1993, she received Associate Degrees in both Business Management and Computer Science from Huntington Junior College of Business.

Aliff began her career with the Corps in May 1991 as a Student Assistant in Office of Counsel. In 1994, she was selected for a temporary position as a Construction Clerk and then hired permanently by the Corps in September 1994. Her most recent assignment was Secretary to the Chief, Engineering/Construction Division. Throughout her 16-year career with the Huntington District, Aliff has received numerous awards and recognitions including the Commander's Award for Civilian Service.
